Dear Miss Whitney -

Thank you very much for sending me the book - I have already read and have on my shelves at this moment a volume Mrs. Peterson lent me but I am so happy to have this from you -

I like them so much - Praise from me for them cannot interest you for I am on the verge of being actually illiterate - When I could recognize their breadth and sweep - They seem in the big tradition and recording life - This book will be one of my precious possessions -

Miss Blumber writes me that you have invited her to spend the month of July with you and that she would like to go - She is afraid you may repent your invitation - I am not but I hope you will not miss your other, older friends too much - You will know the good you are doing her and that must give you satisfaction.

I hear nothing from the Petersens.

My work will keep me here until July anyway - I wish I might show it to you -

Thank you many times

Miss Whitney -

With most affectionate regard and may I say profound admiration - Frances Trinneer
